

I would like to keep my cell phone number and have the option to change services if current provider was not providing service I was happy with. I have purchased my home phone number, so why can't I purchase my cell phone number.